SOCIAL MEDIA MANIA

The first festival produced in 2018 quickly went viral after completion. The word began to spread extremely fast across the country that there is an Urban Pride in Las Vegas, NV. The festival was an overnight success! The inquiries came pouring in on our mailing list to be the first to know about the 2019 festival. Over the years, Nicole credits her genuine southern hospitality heritage roots to ensure everyone from the sponsors, vendors, attendees, and the HOVP teams feels welcomed and appreciated for their participation the entire weekend.
