Does Vegas Urban Pride have any Charitable Giving During Weekend?

Vegas Urban Pride has a “Drop the Guns Pick Up A Ball” basketball tournament that is catered to bring awareness to the national issue of gun violence within our communities. The tournament features LGBTQ players that are in the WNBA, NBA, Previous and/or Current Olympic Players, and Celebrities that comes together to play a game. We accept donations of basketballs, and hoops to pass out to children and their families to encourage more sport interaction with children to keep them out the streets and away from gun violence. Announcement and sign ups for tournament teams will be open soon. This event happens the last day of the 3-day weekend.
